I hereby provide clear evidence of my reasons for complaint:

☐ I understand that a redress request can only be based on procedural grounds, which refers to a flaw in the way the eligibility check or the evaluation process (external evaluation or interview) were conducted.

Applications considered ineligible will be given the opportunity to submit a request for redress where an applicant believes the result provided is incorrect. This will guarantee an open, efficient, transparent, supportive and internationally comparable recruitment process. A period of 10 days will be given for the redress including careful review by the PMT before taking a final decision.

If you believe the evaluation provided is incorrect in any form, please use this template to request redress of your evaluation and send it to: aihub@csic.es with the Subject: ALLIES REDRESS REQUEST #your application number.
